

England Athletics Coaches Conference 4th December 2010 at Lee Valley

Hi all,

The annual England Athletics Coaches Conference is taking place at Lee Valley on Saturday 4th December. The club are happy to pay for any of you who wish to attend so I would be grateful if you could let me know as soon as possible if you would like to go. I will also need to know which workshops you wish to participate in (see attached flyer for details) in order for me to complete the online booking process for which we get a substantial discount.

For those of you on the National Coach Dev Prog (Ken, Eddie and Simon) I believe that you qualify for a free place and that you may have to book separately.

For those of you who are not aware, Ken has arranged a session at the track on Saturday 23rd Oct from 10 until 12 to which we are sending an open invitation to all parents who may like to consider taking on a coaching role. If you would like to be involved and have not yet spoken with Ken about this please could you contact him directly.

Many thanks,
